

1 IN 10 AT 11

A Conference for Those
Serving LGBT Middle School
Students

Friday, January 11th, 2008
7:00 -9:00PM

Saturday, January 12th, 2008
9:00AM-4:00PM

Sessions include:

- Creating Welcoming Space for Middle-Schoolers
- Safe Church, Safe Child- Challenges to privacy and counseling in congregational and educational settings
- Too Young to Know- Speaking of self-identity, the pre-teen, and developmental skills
- The experience of the LGBT child in the middle school setting
- Helping LGBT children cope with hate speech and bullying.
- Spirituality and the LGBT Pre-teen

First Church in Boston
66 Marlborough St.

To register: info@fccmelrose.org or 781-665-2111

Co-Sponsors include:

Office of Ministry Studies, Harvard Divinity School, First Church Boston (UUA), First Church in Cambridge (UCC), First Congregational Church Melrose (UCC), Greater Boston PFLAG, Promise the Children (UU advocates for children and families) and student organizations from Harvard Divinity, Harvard Law, Harvard Medical and Northeastern Law.

Supporting Organizations include Massachusetts Conference United Church of Christ Open and Affirming (ONA) Task Force and Keshet (advocacy for gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgendered Jews)